

• St Helena • Larnaca
(Anglican weddings)

St Helena offers an excellent location in town, yet it is also within easy reach of the palm-tree seafront promenade of Larnaca - a gorgeous spot to ensure your photo album is filled with sea view memories. St Helena offers you the opportunity to enjoy an Anglican Church service and should you wish to enjoy a live version of the traditional 'wedding march', an organist can be hired on your behalf at a supplement. Lots of choices for your reception at your hotel or a local restaurant.

• Terra Santa • Larnaca
(Catholic weddings)

Dating back to the mid 80's, Terra Santa is, as most Catholic churches are, a very beautiful building inside as well as outside and it makes a splendid wedding venue in the centre of Larnaca. Dedicated to 'The Virgin Mary of the Graces' and representing the shape of the Latin cross, Terra Santa Church has three narthexes, dome and colonnade built in its face. Following your religious service, your reception can take place anywhere you wish - just say what you have in mind.

• St Catherine • Limassol
(Catholic weddings)

Close to the beautiful seafront of Limassol, the Roman Catholic church of St Catherine boasts a stunning interior for the location of your religious wedding ceremony. As an additional bonus, nearby gardens provide a scenic and convenient opportunity for the setting of your photographs.

The range of hotels we offer in this part of Cyprus means that you won't have far to travel if your wedding reception has been organised at your hotel. Moreover, we'll also be able to give you details of menus and options available at local tavernas and restaurants if you prefer your gathering to be filled with local flavours.

It's your day... your choice!

• St Barnabas • Limassol
(Anglican weddings)

St Barnabas Church is a lovely, traditional venue for an Anglican wedding ceremony. It is located in the old part of Limassol Town, so don't be surprised to see locals gather outside for a good look at the wedding party - everyone loves looking at a bride! After the service, pose for photos within the old town or by the seafront, then, it's party time to celebrate the best day of your life!

• Aghia Kyriaki • Paphos
(Anglican & Catholic weddings)

This very quaint church was originally built in the 12th Century and stands on the ancient site referred to as St Paul's Pillar. Aghia Kyriaki is a popular wedding venue for guests staying in and around Paphos. Anglican and Catholic ceremonies can be arranged and it is worth noting that only organ music can be played during your service (no CD's). Stunning photo opportunities within the grounds of this pretty church before you carry on your celebrations.

• St George Chapel • Paphos
(Anglican & Catholic weddings)

This gorgeous chapel is a very popular and beautiful wedding location within the grounds of the St George Hotel, located on the beachfront between Paphos and Coral Bay. With its beautiful interior adorned with exquisite frescoes, St George Chapel can comfortably sit a maximum of 35 people. After your ceremony, which can either be an Anglican or Catholic Church service, head to where you have organised your wedding reception, be it a local taverna or your hotel.

• St Nicholas • Paphos
(Anglican weddings)

With its whitewashed walls and blue dome, St Nicholas truly illustrates what a typical Greek-style church should look like. Inside, it sits 44 persons and it is richly embellished with painted icons and solid oak furniture. St Nicholas stands in Kato Paphos and its outdoor terrace stretches to the seafront - a perfect spot for sunset photographs. We offer a wide choice of hotels in this area of Paphos and plenty to suggest for your reception.
