

Pousada de Tavira is a former 16th Century convent has been tastefully restored and transformed into a splendid hotel that offers a host of amenities, not least a truly picturesque setting for a romantic wedding day. Complete with a Renaissance cloister and Baroque staircase, this top-class hotel sits in the town of Tavira which, despite the influx of tourism in the Algarve, has retained much of its historical character. It is also only 35km east of Faro airport.

Getting married at Pousada de Tavira Hotel gives you the opportunity to choose various venues for your ceremony depending on the number of guests.

Cocktail Parties & Wedding Receptions

Once you have exchanged your vows, your reception can be organised outdoors on the patio or indoors in the Conventual Room. And no matter where you select to have your day, all locations guarantee wonderful backdrops for your wedding photo album!

A fee is charged for the exclusive use of either the Cloisters (that can accommodate up to 260 persons) or the use of the Conventual Room.

Music is permitted until 11pm, subject to prior arrangements and approval.
