

Aphrodite Beach venue is a stunning location for anyone who chooses to marry in Ayia Napa. It is a romantic and exclusive venue, not attached to a public restaurant and there are no sunbeds on the beach either (so, no chance of sunbathers on your wedding photos!)! And as Aphrodite Beach only offers one wedding per day, you are guaranteed to be made dully special on your very special day.

Weddings are conducted under the purpose-built pavilion, a charming set up that can be decorated to your wishes. A few paces away is the marquee for your reception (see below) before we invite you and your guests to dance the night away!

Cocktail Parties & Wedding Receptions

A 'chill-out' area can be set up for you to share a few glasses of 'bubbly' with your guests after your ceremony or later in the evening. Additionally, the splendid marquee that faces the sea can accommodate from 20 up to 120 persons and offers a prime setting for your buffet reception. We'll discuss with you the various menus available and ensure that any extra touches you wish to add to your tables are laid out as you wish.
