

A no-fuss beach wedding location

Mr & Mrs King

Here comes the bride

In addition to wedding ceremonies taking place at the town hall, the Municipality of Yeroskipou also offers couples the lovely opportunity to marry on the beach. The venue at Yeroskipou beach is simply perfect for anyone seeking a chilled out, informal and picturesque setting right on the seashore.

To ensure a more private setting on this public beach, we suggest that weddings take place late afternoon. The set up can include an arch to 'frame' the bride and groom as they take their vows in front of their seated guests. Any decorations you wish to add can be arranged on request to make this charming seafront venue as personalised as you wish it to be - we'll send you all relevant details at the time of booking for you to choose from.

Cocktail Parties & Wedding Receptions

No matter how many guests you have invited, we'll have some excellent suggestions for you to continue to celebrate your special day after your ceremony. Perhaps you'll wish to have a cocktail party followed by a reception at the hotel where you're staying? Or, how about gathering at a picturesque taverna or local restaurant for typical Cypriot fayre? The possibilities are plentiful and everything will be organised to your wishes.
